PILIPINAS KONG MAHAL

A hand-drawn acronym for VUCA. The letters V, U, C, and A are each inside a colored circle (yellow, orange, red, and purple respectively). To the right of each circle, the corresponding word is written in a cursive, handwritten style. A hand is visible on the right side of the image, holding a black marker and writing the word 'Ambiguity'.

CALM IN THE CHAOS

“It’s all about finding calm in the chaos.”

-Donna Karen

Provide learning handles to serve as an anchor.

Advance a balanced presentation.

Be assisted by technology.

Develop a strong agency.

The teacher is a primary agency.

“In order to learn from uncertainty, we first need to tolerate its existence. In facing uncertainty, psychological flexibility and openness to learning may be key.”

-Kasdan and Rottenberg, 2010[57]

“In the case of humans, our hardware is flexible and therefore adjusting to optimally meet uncertainty is challenging but not impossible.”

—Draganski et al., 2004[58]
